

WHERE TO SEEK HEALTHCARE:

Primary Care

When Non-Emergency Treatment Is Needed This Should Be Your First Call

- Testing - Flu/COVID-19/etc
- Vaccinations
- Sinus Infection
- Upper Respiratory Problems
- Sore Throat
- Ear Ache
- Stomach Pain
- Nausea/Vomiting
- Diarrhea
- Fever/Chills
- Cough
- Headache
- Fatigue
- Loss of Taste/Smell
- Routine Care and More

Immediate Care

When Treatment Is Needed Soon & Your Provider Is Not Available or If You Do Not Have A Provider

All items in the Primary Care List Plus:

- Broken or Dislocated Bones
- Minor Cuts, Scrapes or Burns
- Animal Bites
- Insect Stings
- Urinary Tract Infections
- Tetanus Shots
- Skin Problems
- Back, Joint or Muscle Pain
- Pink Eye

Emergency Room

When Immediate Treatment Is Needed For Serious or Life Threatening Issues

- Difficulty Breathing
- Severe Abdominal Pain
- Severe Bleeding
- Severe Injury
- Heart Attack Symptoms
 - severe chest pain with nausea, shortness of breath, dizziness, fatigue or cold sweats
- Stroke Symptoms
 - Facial drooping, arm weakness or speech difficulties
- Suicidal Behavior
- Head Injuries
- Seizure
- Poisoning or Overdose
- Severe Allergic Reaction

Call 9-1-1 If You Are Experiencing A Medical Emergency

